The Best Place To Be On The Best Day Of The Week

Living as God's Temple

The Day of Pentecost wasn't just a historical event—it was a complete transformation of how God dwells with His people. This pivotal moment reveals a truth that should revolutionize our lives: we are now God's temple.

Throughout Israel's history, God's presence was marked by fire and glory. At Mount Sinai, the mountain was "wrapped in smoke because the Lord had descended on it in fire" (Exodus 19:18). God's glory filled the tabernacle with cloud and fire. When Solomon's temple was dedicated, fire came down from heaven and God's glory filled the temple so powerfully the priests couldn't enter.

On Pentecost, the apostles heard "a sound like a mighty rushing wind" and "divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them" (Acts 2:2-3). But this fire didn't rest on a building or mountain—it rested on people. Each apostle became a living temple, filled with the Holy Spirit.

This wasn't limited to the apostles. Paul wrote: "In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit" (Ephesians 2:22). When we follow Jesus and are baptized into Christ, we become God's temple.

What does this mean for how we live?

We cannot compartmentalize our lives into "sacred" and "secular" categories. When you're at work, parenting, or interacting with neighbors, you carry God's presence. The person you are at church should be the same person you are everywhere else.

Paul challenges us: "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body" (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Our sin defiles God's temple. Sexual immorality, materialism, division, gossip—these dishonor the One who dwells within us. But when we embrace this reality, every action becomes worship, every relationship an opportunity to represent Him.

This week, live with constant awareness that you are God's temple. The Day of Pentecost changed everything—God now dwells in you.
